1. 1.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any indebtedness issued that is secured by a first lien, including debtor-in-possession financing;
2. 3.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any indebtedness issued that (x) is secured by a second or junior lien, (y) is unsecured and/or (z) is subordinated; and
3. 4.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any equity or equity-linked securities or obligations issued.

21. In addition to any fees payable to Centerview, the Debtors will reimburse Centerview for its travel and other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel to be retained by Centerview, and of other consultants and advisors retained by Centerview with the Debtors’ consent), incurred in connection with, or arising out of Centerview’s activities under or contemplated by this engagement, as well as all costs and expenses as they are incurred in connection with investigating, preparing for, pursuing, defending against or providing evidence in, any pending or threatened action, claim, suit, investigation or other proceeding brought by or against any person, including, without limitation, by the Company against Centerview and vice versa related to or arising out of the Engagement Letter, Centerview’s engagement or any matter or transaction contemplated thereby. On June 21, 2022, the Debtors paid, and will maintain, a $10,000 expense advance for Centerview (the “Retainer”). Centerview will return the unused portion of the Retainer to the Debtors following termination of the Engagement Letter. Centerview agrees to provide the Debtors with reasonable support for its expenses at the Debtors’ request or at the Court’s discretion.

22. Centerview intends to apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with these chapter 11 cases, subject to the Court's approval and in compliance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Court Guidelines, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court, including any order approving the Application and consistent with the proposed Fee and Expense Structure set forth in the Engagement Letter.

23. The Debtors believe the Fee and Expense Structure is consistent with compensation arrangements entered into by Centerview and other comparable firms in connection with the rendering of similar services under similar circumstances, both in and out of bankruptcy proceedings. The Fee and Expense Structure reflects a balance between a fixed monthly fee, and a contingency amount, which is tied to the consummation and closing of the transactions and services contemplated by the Debtors and Centerview in the Engagement Letter. In analyzing the Fee and Expense Structure and the reasonableness of such compensation, the Debtors believe Centerview's fee proposal appropriately reflects the extensive time commitment and resources required. The fee proposal was negotiated on an arm's-length basis prior to any buyer outreach and designed to compensate Centerview fairly for its work.

24. Centerview's strategic and financial expertise, as well as its capital markets knowledge, financing skills, and restructuring capabilities, some or all of which have been and will be required by the Debtors during the term of Centerview's engagement, were important factors to the Debtors in determining the Fee and Expense Structure. The Debtors believe that the ultimate benefits of Centerview's services hereunder cannot be measured by reference to the number of hours to be expended by Centerview's professionals in the performance of such services. The Debtors and Centerview agreed upon the Fee and Expense Structure in anticipation that a substantial commitment of professional time and effort would be required of Centerview and in light of the fact that (a) such commitment could foreclose other opportunities for Centerview and (b) the actual time and commitment required of Centerview and its professionals to perform its services under the Engagement Letter may vary substantially from week to week and month to month, creating “peak load” issues for Centerview. Therefore, the Debtors believe that the Fee and Expense Structure is reasonable regardless of the number of hours Centerview’s professionals spend performing their services and that in no event should the deferred component embodied in any fee to which Centerview is entitled to under the Engagement Letter be considered a “bonus” or fee enhancement.

Application for Compensation and Time Keeping

25. The Debtors request that Centerview and its professionals should be excused from maintaining time records similar to those customarily kept by attorneys and as required by Local Rule 2016-2 in connection with the services to be rendered pursuant to the Engagement Letter, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, orders of this Court, the Court Guidelines, and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines regarding submission and approval of fee applications and in light of the services that Centerview may provide to the Debtors and the structure of Centerview’s compensation pursuant to the Engagement Letter. Centerview still intends to file interim and final fee applications for the allowance of compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred. Such applications will include time records setting forth, in a summary format, a description of the services that each professional renders and the amount of time that such individual spent on each date in rendering services on behalf of the Debtors.

26. Because it is not the general practice of investment banking firms, including Centerview, to keep contemporaneous detailed time records similar to those customarily kept by attorneys or provide or conform to a schedule of hourly rates for its professionals, Centerview does not ordinarily maintain contemporaneous time records in one-tenth (0.1) of an hour increments, or provide or conform to a schedule of hourly rates for its professionals. Moreover, Centerview does not ordinarily keep time records on a “project category” basis; and, pursuant to the Engagement Letter, Centerview’s compensation is based in part on a fixed Monthly Advisory Fee. Notwithstanding that Centerview does not charge for its services on an hourly basis, Centerview requests that it be permitted to maintain time records in half hour (0.5) increments, setting forth, in a summary format, a description of the services rendered and the professionals rendering such services on behalf of the Debtors. Centerview will also maintain records in support of any costs and expenses incurred in connection with its services. The Debtors will pay Centerview’s applications for compensation and expenses pursuant to the terms of the Engagement Letter and upon this Court’s approval.

Indemnification, Reimbursement, and Contribution Provisions

27. As part of the overall compensation payable to Centerview under the terms of the Engagement Letter, the Debtors have agreed to certain indemnification, contribution, and reimbursement obligations (such provisions, collectively, the “Indemnification Provisions”), set forth in Annex A of the Engagement Letter (the “Indemnification Agreement”). As more fully set forth therein, the Indemnification Agreement provides that the Debtors will indemnify and hold harmless Centerview, each of its affiliates, Centerview’s and such affiliates’ respective members, directors, officers, employees and controlling persons, and each of their respective successors and assigns (each a “Centerview Person”) from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, demands and liabilities, joint or several, or actions or proceedings in respect thereof, brought by or against any person, including, without limitation, by the Debtors against any Centerview Person and vice versa (collectively, “Losses”) which are related to or arise out of the Engagement Letter, Centerview’s engagement or any matter or transaction contemplated thereby.

28. These Indemnification Provisions were negotiated at arm’s length and in good faith between the Debtors and Centerview. The Debtors believe that the Indemnification Provisions in the Engagement Letter reflect the customary qualifications and limits on such terms for financial advisory engagements both out of court and in chapter 11 cases and respectfully submit that the Indemnification Provisions are reasonable, subject to the modifications set forth in the Order. The Debtors believe that the proposed modifications to the Indemnification Provisions are appropriate under the circumstances, consistent with recent orders entered in this jurisdiction, and should be approved. As part of this Application, the Debtors request that this Court approve the Indemnification Provisions.

Efforts to Avoid Duplication of Services

29. The Debtors have applied, or expect to apply, to the Court to retain additional professionals, including, among others: (a) Kirkland & Ellis LLP; (b) Alvarez and Marsal, LLC (“A&M”); (c) Ernst & Young LLP; and (d) Stretto, Inc. The Debtors do not believe that the services to be performed by Centerview on behalf of the Debtors will be duplicative of services provided by these additional professionals, including the services of A&M. A&M, a proposed financial advisor, is not being retained to perform the same services as Centerview, as set forth in both retention applications and engagement letters. The Debtors and Centerview are mindful of the need to avoid duplication of services and appropriate procedures will be implemented to ensure that there is minimal duplication of effort as a result of Centerview's retention as investment banker. The Debtors understand that Centerview will use its reasonable efforts to work cooperatively with the Debtors' other professionals to integrate any respective work performed by those professionals on behalf of the Debtors.

Centerview's Disinterestedness

30. Centerview has reviewed the list of parties-in-interest provided by the Debtors. To the best of Centerview's knowledge, information, and belief, as of the date hereof, and except to the extent disclosed herein or in the Puntus Declaration, Centerview: (a) believes it is a "disinterested person" within the meaning of section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) does not hold or represent an interest materially adverse to the Debtors' estates; and (c) has no material connection to the Debtors, their creditors, or other parties-in-interest except as disclosed in the Puntus Declaration.

31. Given the large number of parties-in-interest in these chapter 11 cases, and despite the efforts to identify and disclose Centerview's relationships with parties-in-interest in these chapter 11 cases, Centerview is unable to state with certainty that every client relationship or other connection has been disclosed in the Puntus Declaration. Centerview has informed the Debtors that if any new material facts or relationships bearing on the matters described herein are discovered or otherwise arise during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, Centerview will use reasonable efforts to provide the Court with a supplemental declaration disclosing such new material facts or relationships.

32. The Debtors are informed that Centerview will not share any compensation to be paid by the Debtors, in connection with services to be performed after the Petition Date, with any other person, other than principals and employees of Centerview, to the extent required by section 504 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Basis for Relief

A. The Debtors Should Be Permitted to Retain and Employ Centerview on the Terms of the Engagement Letter Pursuant to Sections 327 and 328 of the Bankruptcy Code.

33. The Debtors seek approval of the retention and employment of Centerview pursuant to sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor in possession “may employ one or more attorneys, accountants, appraisers, auctioneers, or other professional persons, that do not hold or represent an interest adverse to the estate, and that are disinterested persons, to represent or assist” the debtor in possession in carrying out its duties. 11 U.S.C. § 327(a).

34. In addition, section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that debtors “with the court’s approval, may employ or authorize the employment of a professional person under section 327 . . . on any reasonable terms and conditions of employment, including on a retainer, on an hourly basis, on a fixed or percentage fee basis, or on a contingent fee basis.” 11 U.S.C. § 328(a). Accordingly, section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code permits the compensation of professionals, including investment bankers, on more flexible terms that reflect the nature of their services and market conditions. As the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit recognized in Donaldson Lufkin & Jenrette Sec. Corp. v. Nat’l Gypsum (In re Nat’l Gypsum Co.):

Prior to 1978 the most able professionals were often unwilling to work for bankruptcy estates where their compensation would be subject to the uncertainties of what a judge thought the work was worth after it had been done. That uncertainty continues under the present § 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, which provides that the court award to professional consultants “reasonable compensation” based on relevant factors of time and comparable costs, etc. Under present § 328 the professional may avoid that uncertainty by obtaining court approval of compensation agreed to with the trustee (or debtor or committee).

123 F.3d 861, 862 (5th Cir. 1997) (internal citations and emphasis omitted).

35. As discussed above and in the Puntus Declaration, Centerview satisfies the disinterestedness standard in section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Centerview advised the Debtors prior to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases and, to date has committed a significant amount of time and effort assisting the Debtors with their restructuring efforts. Additionally, given the numerous issues that Centerview may be required to address in the performance of its services for the Debtors pursuant to the Engagement Letter, Centerview's commitment to the variable level of time and effort necessary to address all such issues as they arise, and the market prices for Centerview's services for engagements of this nature, the Debtors believe that the terms and conditions of the Engagement Letter are fair, reasonable, and market-based under the standards set forth in section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

36. Indeed, the Debtors believe that the Fee Structure appropriately reflects: (a) the nature and scope of services to be provided by Centerview; (b) Centerview's substantial experience with respect to investment banking and financial advisory services; and (c) the fee structures typically utilized by Centerview and other leading investment banks who do not bill their clients on an hourly basis, in bankruptcy or otherwise.

37. As set forth above, and notwithstanding approval of Centerview's Engagement Letter under section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code, Centerview intends to apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with these chapter 11 cases, subject to the Court's approval and in compliance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Court Guidelines, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court, with certain limited modifications as set forth herein. Furthermore, the Debtors propose that their obligation to pay any fee, expense or indemnity to Centerview not be subject to any reduction by way of setoff, recoupment or counterclaim.

38. The Debtors request that the requirements of Local Rule 2016-1, the Court Guidelines, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court be tailored to the nature of Centerview's engagement and its compensation structure. Centerview has requested, pursuant to section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, payment of its fees on a fixed-rate and/or fixed-percentage basis. Additionally, it is not the general practice of investment banking firms like Centerview to keep detailed time records similar to those customarily kept by attorneys. As discussed above, however, Centerview's restructuring professionals, when formally retained in chapter 11 cases, and when required by Local Rules, do, and in these chapter 11 cases, will, keep summary time records in hourly increments describing their daily activities and the identity of the professionals who performed such tasks. As such, the Debtors request modification of the requirements under Local Rule 2016-1, the Court Guidelines, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court.

39. Similar fixed and contingency fee arrangements have been approved and implemented by courts in other large chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re MD Helicopters, Inc., No. 22-10263 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. May 6, 2022); In re Energy Alloys Holdings, LLC, No. 20-12088 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. June 28, 2021); In re Knotel, Inc., No. 21-10146 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 12, 2021); In re Mallinkrodt plc, No. 20-12522 (JTD) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 14, 2021); In re Intelsat S.A., No. 20-32299 (KLP) (Bankr. E.D. Va. Sept. 22, 2020); In re Jason Indus., Inc., No. 20-22766 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 26, 2020); In re Internap Technology Solutions Inc., No. 20-22393 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 5, 2020).

40. The Debtors also believe that employment of Centerview effective as of the Petition Date is warranted under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases. Centerview has provided, and will continue to provide, valuable services to the Debtors regarding the contemplated transactions. See, e.g., In re Ark. Co., 798 F.2d 645, 648 (3d Cir. 1986) (“[T]he bankruptcy courts have the power to authorize retroactive employment of counsel and other professionals under their broad equity power.” (collecting cases)).

B. The Indemnification Provisions Are Appropriate.

41. The Indemnification Provisions in the Indemnification Agreement, as modified by the Order attached hereto, were negotiated at arm’s-length between the Debtors and Centerview. The Debtors and Centerview believe that the Indemnification Provisions are customary and reasonable for investment banking engagements both out-of-court and in chapter 11 cases. Similar provisions have been approved by courts in other large chapter 11 cases. See e.g., In re Sungard Availability Services Capital, Inc., No. 19-22915 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2019); In re Cloud Peak Energy Inc., No. 19-11047 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. June 12, 2019); In re CTI Foods, LLC, No. 19-10497 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. April 8, 2019); In re Things Remembered, Inc., No. 19-10234 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 13, 2019); In re Checkout Holding Corp., No. 18-12794 (KG) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 10, 2019); In re Westmoreland Coal Company, No. 18-35672 (DRJ) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Nov. 14, 2018); In re ATD Corporation, No. 18-12221 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 15, 2018); In re BPS US Holdings Inc., No. 16-12373 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 9, 2016); In re Patriot Coal Corp., No. 15-32450 (KLP) (Bankr. E.D. Va. June 10, 2015).

42. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully submit that the terms of the Indemnification Provisions are reasonable and customary and should be approved in these chapter 11 cases.

C. The Retention of Centerview is Critical to the Debtors' Success.

43. The Debtors submit that the retention of Centerview is in the best interests of all parties-in-interest in these chapter 11 cases. As noted above, Centerview has extensive experience in matters involving complex financial restructurings and an excellent reputation for the services that it has rendered in chapter 11 cases on behalf of debtors and creditor constituencies throughout the United States. Centerview is a preeminent financial advisory and investment banking firm that is intimately familiar with the Debtors' businesses. Denial of the relief requested herein will deprive the Debtors of the assistance of Centerview's uniquely qualified professionals who have served them for several weeks prior to the Petition Date and have continued to assist them following the Petition Date. Indeed, if the Debtors were forced to engage a new financial advisor and investment banker who lacks a thorough understanding of the Debtors' businesses, such change would mandate the commitment of significant resources to educate a replacement, causing significant delay and increased cost. Based on services performed to date, Centerview was integral in preparing the Debtors for these chapter 11 cases

44. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules to support entry of an order authorizing the Debtors to retain and employ Centerview in these chapter 11 cases on the terms described herein and in the Engagement Letter.

Notice

45. The Debtors will provide notice of this Application to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Committee; (c) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (d) the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York; (e) the Internal Revenue Service; (f) the offices of the attorneys general in the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (h) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

46. No prior request for the relief sought in this Application has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter the Order granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a), Local Rule 2016-1, the Court Guidelines, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court in connection with Centerview's engagement; and (d) granting such other relief as is just and proper, all as more fully set forth in the Application; and upon the Puntus Declaration; and this Court having jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, entered February 1, 2012; and this Court having the power to enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that venue of these cases in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the relief requested in the Application is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Application and opportunity for a hearing thereon were appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Application and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Application and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefore, it is HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Application is granted as set forth in this Order, and the provisions set forth in the Engagement Letter (and all attachments thereto) are hereby approved, to the extent provided herein and except as otherwise expressly modified herein to the contrary.

2. In accordance with sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2014(a) and 2016, and Local Rules 2014-1 and 2016-1, the Debtors are authorized to employ and retain Centerview as their investment banker in these chapter 11 cases in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Engagement Letter, incorporated herein by reference and as modified herein, to pay fees and reimburse expenses, and to provide indemnification, contribution, and/or reimbursement to Centerview on the terms and at the times specified in the Engagement Letter as modified herein, effective as of the Petition Date.

3. The Engagement Letter, including, without limitation, the Indemnification Agreement, is incorporated herein by reference and approved in all respects except as otherwise set forth herein.

4. Centerview shall be compensated for fees and reimbursed for reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses by the Debtors in accordance with the terms of the Engagement Letter, as modified herein, and all fees and out-of-pocket expense reimbursements to be paid to Centerview, including without limitation the Monthly Fees, the Transaction Fee, the Minority Sale Transaction Fee, and the Financing Fee, shall be subject to section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, except as set forth herein.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the Application and/or Engagement Letter, Centerview shall file interim and final fee applications for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Court Guidelines, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and any other procedures or orders of the Court; provided, however, the U.S. Trustee retains all rights to respond or object to Centerview's interim and final applications for compensation (including, without limitation, the Monthly Advisory Fees, the Minority Sale Transaction Fee, the Transaction Fee, and the Financing Fee) and reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Court retains jurisdiction to consider the U.S. Trustee's response or objection to Centerview's interim and final fee applications pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, further, that “reasonableness” for this purpose shall be evaluated by comparing (among other things) the fees payable in these chapter 11 cases to fees paid to comparable investment banking firms with similar experience and reputation offering comparable services in other chapter 11 cases and shall not be evaluated primarily on an hourly or length-of-case based criteria.

6. Centerview is authorized to apply the Retainer to any unbilled or otherwise remaining expenses that Centerview becomes aware of during its ordinary course billing review and reconciliation. Centerview shall apply any remaining amounts of the Retainer as a credit towards postpetition fees and expenses after such postpetition fees and expenses are approved pursuant to the first order of the Court awarding fees and expenses to Centerview.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Application and/or, the Engagement Letter, Centerview’s restructuring professionals, with the exception of clerical and administrative staff, shall be required only to keep summary time records of the services they have performed in one-half hour increments. Centerview’s professionals shall not be required to keep time records on a project category basis, and Centerview shall not be required to provide or conform to any schedule of hourly rates.

8. In the event that Centerview seeks reimbursement from the Debtors for attorneys’ fees and expenses pursuant to the Application and/or the Engagement Letter, the invoices and supporting time records for the attorneys’ fees and expenses shall be included in Centerview’s own applications, both interim and final, and such invoices and time records shall be subject to the approval of the Court pursuant to section 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code without regard to whether such attorneys have been retained under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code, and without regard to whether such attorneys’ services satisfy section 330(a)(3)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Attorneys' fees and/or expenses reimbursed under the Engagement Letter shall be limited to those expended in representing Centerview in retention and fee application matters. For the avoidance of doubt, the preceding sentence does not apply to, and in no way limits, the provisions with respect to reimbursement of attorneys' fees and/or expenses set forth in Annex A to the Engagement Letter with respect to indemnification.

9. The indemnification, exculpation, contribution, and reimbursement provisions included in Annex A to the Engagement Letter are approved, subject during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases to the following modifications:

- a. All requests by Centerview Persons for payment of indemnity pursuant to the Engagement Letter shall be made by means of an application (interim or final as the case may be) and shall be subject to review by the Court to ensure that payment of such indemnity conforms to the terms of the Engagement Letter and is reasonable based upon the circumstances of the litigation or settlement in respect of which indemnity is sought, provided, however, that in no event shall a Centerview Person be indemnified to the extent that a court determines by final order that any loss, claim, damage, demand, liability (joint or several) or action or proceeding resulted from such Centerview Person's own bad-faith, self-dealing, breach of fiduciary duty (if any), gross negligence or willful misconduct;
- b. In the event that Centerview seeks reimbursement from the Debtors for reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with a request by Centerview for payment of indemnity pursuant to the Engagement Letter, as modified by this Order, the invoices and supporting time records from such attorneys shall be included in Centerview's own application (both interim and final) and such invoices and time records shall be subject to the Court Guidelines and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines and the approval of the Court under the standards of sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code without regard to whether such attorney has been retained under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code and without regard to whether such attorneys' services satisfy section 330(a)(3)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code;
- c. Centerview shall not be entitled to reimbursement by the Debtors for any fees, disbursements and other charges of Centerview's counsel other than those incurred in connection with a request of Centerview for payment of indemnity, retention of Centerview and preparation of fee applications; and

- d. In no event shall a Centerview Person be indemnified if the Debtor(s) or representatives of the estates assert a claim for, and a court determines by final order that such claim arose out of, such Centerview Person's own bad-faith, self-dealing, breach of fiduciary duty (if any), gross negligence, or willful misconduct.

10. Centerview shall use its reasonable efforts to avoid any duplication of services provided by any of the Debtors' other retained professionals in these chapter 11 cases.

11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Application and/or Engagement Letter, to the extent that Centerview uses the services of independent contractors or employees of foreign affiliates or subsidiaries (collectively, the "Contractors") in these cases, Centerview (i) shall pass-through the cost of such Contractors to the Debtors at the same rate that Centerview pays the Contractors; (ii) shall seek reimbursement for actual out-of-pocket expenses only; and (iii) shall ensure that the Contractors are subject to the same conflict checks and disclosures as required of Centerview by Bankruptcy Rule 2014.

12. Such services other than set forth in the Application that the Debtors may request that Centerview provide during the course of these chapter 11 cases, and as agreed to by Centerview, shall be subject to separate application and order of this Court.

13. The Debtors and Centerview are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in and pursuant to this Order.

14. Notice of the Application as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Application and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

15. The terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

16. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Application or the Engagement Letter, the Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and to determine all matters arising from or related to implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.

17. To the extent that there is any inconsistency between the Engagement Letter, the Application, the Puntus Declaration, and this Order, the provisions of this Order shall apply.

CONFIDENTIAL
Celsius Network LLC
121 River Street, PH05
Hoboken, NJ 07030
Attention: Chris Ferraro

Dear Mr. Ferraro:

This letter (the "Agreement") confirms the terms under which Celsius Network LLC and certain of its affiliates (collectively, the "Company") have engaged Centerview Partners LLC ("Centerview") as its financial advisor and investment banker with respect to a possible Restructuring, Financing and/or Sale (each as defined below) and with respect to such other financial matters as to which the Company and Centerview may agree in writing during the term of this engagement. For purposes hereof, the term "Company" also includes any entity that the Company may form or invest in to consummate a Restructuring, Financing and/or Sale, and shall also include any successor to or assignee of all or a portion of the assets and/or businesses of the Company, whether pursuant to a Plan (as defined below) or otherwise. If appropriate in connection with performing its services for the Company hereunder, Centerview may utilize the services of one or more of its affiliates, in which case references herein to Centerview shall include, as applicable, such affiliates. The terms of this Agreement shall apply to all services provided by Centerview to the Company in connection with the matters contemplated herein, including those provided prior to the date of this Agreement.

As used herein, the term "Restructuring" shall mean any recapitalization or restructuring (including, without limitation, through any exchange, conversion, cancellation, forgiveness, structured resolution or settlement, retirement refinancing, purchase or repurchase and/or a material modification or amendment to the terms, conditions or covenants thereof) of the Company's preferred equity and/or debt securities and/or bank or other credit facilities and/or all other indebtedness, obligations or liabilities (including, without limitation, partnership interests, lease obligations, trade credit facilities, customer-related obligations and/or contract, tort and contingent obligations), including pursuant to a repurchase or an exchange transaction, a Plan (as defined below) or a solicitation of consents, waivers, acceptances or authorizations.

As used herein, the term "Financing" shall mean a public or private issuance, sale or placement of equity, equity-linked or debt securities, instruments or obligations of the Company with one or more lenders and/or investors (each such lender or investor, an "Investor"), or any loan, rights offering or other financing, including any "debtor in possession financing" or "exit financing" in connection with a case under chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et. seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code").

For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Sale" shall mean any transaction or series of related transactions involving an acquisition, merger, consolidation, or any other business combination pursuant to which all or substantially all of the business, equity or assets of the Company are, directly or indirectly, sold, purchased or combined with another entity or company.

It is understood and agreed that nothing contained herein shall constitute an expressed or implied commitment by Centerview to underwrite, place or purchase any securities, in a financing or otherwise, which commitment shall only be set forth in a separate underwriting, placement agency or other appropriate agreement relating to a Financing.

- d. Sale Services. To the extent requested by the Company, Centerview shall:

In rendering its services to the Company hereunder, Centerview is not assuming any responsibility for the Company's underlying business decision to pursue any business strategy or to effect any Restructuring, Financing, and/or Sale. The Company agrees that Centerview shall not have any obligation or responsibility to provide accounting, audit, "crisis management," or business consultant services for the Company, and shall have no responsibility for designing or implementing operating, organizational, administrative, cash management or liquidity improvements, or to provide any fairness or valuation opinions. The Company acknowledges that Centerview is not providing any advice on tax, legal, regulatory or accounting matters, and the Company agrees that it will seek and rely on the advice of its own professional advisors for such matters, and will make an independent decision with respect to the matters that are the subject of this engagement based on such advice.

In order to coordinate effectively the Company's and Centerview's activities to effect a Restructuring, Financing and/or Sale, the Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly inform Centerview of any discussions, negotiations or inquiries regarding a possible Restructuring, Financing and/or Sale (including any such discussions, negotiations or inquiries that have occurred in the six month period prior to the date of this Agreement).

The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to make available to Centerview all information in its possession concerning the business, assets, operations, financial condition and prospects of the Company that Centerview reasonably requests in connection with the services to be performed for the Company hereunder, and shall provide Centerview with reasonable access to the Company's officers, directors, employees, independent accountants, and counsel, and other advisors, agents and other representatives of the Company as Centerview deems appropriate in its reasonable discretion. To the best of the Company's knowledge, all information furnished by or on its behalf to Centerview pertaining to the Company, when delivered, will be accurate and complete in all material respects. In addition, the Company agrees that it will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly notify Centerview of any material event or change in the business affairs, condition (financial or otherwise) of the Company that occurs during the term of our engagement hereunder, or if it learns of any material inaccuracy or misstatement in, or material omission from, any information theretofore delivered to Centerview. The Company understands and agrees that, in performing our services hereunder, Centerview (a) will be using and relying on publicly available information and on materials, data and other information furnished to Centerview by the Company and other parties, (b) is entitled to assume and rely upon the accuracy and completeness of such publicly available information and the other information so furnished without having independently verified the same, and (c) does not assume any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of such information. Centerview will not conduct an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance sheet assets or liabilities) of the Company, or advise or opine on any solvency or viability issues, nor will it make an inspection of the properties or assets of the Company. With respect to any forecasts or projections that may be furnished to Centerview or discussed with the Company, Centerview will assume that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best then currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company as to the matters covered thereby. In connection with the services described above, Centerview acknowledges and agrees that it will transmit any memorandum prepared by the Company describing the Company and its assets, properties or businesses in connection with a Sale or a Financing to potential parties to a Sale or Financing only with the express prior written consent of the Company and subject to the terms of any confidentiality agreements entered into between the Company and such potential parties to a Sale or Financing. The Company will be solely responsible for the contents of this memorandum.

2. As compensation for our services rendered under this Agreement, the Company agrees to pay Centerview in cash, by wire transfer of immediately available funds when due, the following fees:
 - a. A monthly financial advisory fee of $250,000 (the "Monthly Advisory Fee"), the first of which shall be due and paid by the Company upon execution of this Agreement and thereafter on each monthly anniversary thereof during the term of this engagement. After receipt of aggregate Monthly Advisory Fees of $3,000,000, 50% of the amount of any subsequent Monthly Advisory Fees paid to Centerview will be credited (but only once) against any Transaction Fee payable to Centerview pursuant to subparagraph 2(b) hereof.
 - b. If at any time during the term of this engagement or within the twelve full months following the termination of this engagement (including the term of this engagement, the "Fee Period"), (1) the Company consummates any Restructuring or Sale or (2) the Company enters into an agreement in principle, definitive agreement or Plan to effect a Restructuring or Sale, and at any time (including following the expiration of the Fee Period), such Restructuring or Sale is consummated, Centerview shall be entitled to receive a transaction fee (a "Transaction Fee"), contingent upon the consummation of a Restructuring or Sale and payable at the closing thereof equal to $12,000,000
 - c. If at any time during the Fee Period, whether in connection with the consummation of a Restructuring or otherwise, (1) the Company consummates any sale transaction not covered by the definition of Sale (a "Minority Sale"), or (2) the Company enters into an agreement in principle or definitive agreement to effect a Minority Sale, and at any time during the Fee Period such Minority Sale is consummated, the Company shall pay Centerview a fee (a "Minority Sale Transaction Fee") equal to 2.50% of the Aggregate Consideration (as defined below). Such Minority Sale Transaction Fee shall be contingent upon the consummation of a Minority Sale and payable at the closing thereof. Any fee paid under this section 2(c) shall be 50% credited (but only once) against any fees payable under 2(b).

For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Aggregate Consideration" shall mean the total amount of cash and the fair market value (on the date of payment and as determined by the Company and Centerview in good faith) of all securities and other property paid or payable, directly or indirectly, by the acquiring party (the "Acquiror") to the acquired party or the seller of the acquired business (in either case, the "Acquired"), or to the Acquired's contract parties, claim holders, security holders and employees, or by the Acquired to the Acquired's contract parties, claim holders, security holders and employees, in connection with a Minority Sale or a transaction related thereto (including, without limitation, amounts paid by the Acquiror (i) pursuant to covenants not to compete, employment contracts, employee benefit plans or other similar arrangements and (ii) to holders of any warrants, stock purchase rights, convertible securities or similar rights of the Acquired and to holders of any options or stock appreciation rights issued by the Acquired, whether or not vested). Aggregate Consideration shall also include the value of any liabilities (including obligations relating to any capitalized leases and the principal amount of any indebtedness for borrowed money) (x) existing on the Acquired's balance sheet at the time of a Minority Sale or repaid or retired in anticipation of a Minority Sale (if such Minority Sale takes the form of a merger or sale or exchange of stock) or (y) assumed directly or indirectly by the Acquiror in connection with a Minority Sale (if such Minority Sale takes the form of a sale or exchange of assets). Aggregate Consideration shall also include (i) the net value (on the closing date of the Minority Sale and as determined by the Company and Centerview in good faith), if positive, of any current assets not sold to the Acquiror. If a Minority Sale takes the form of a recapitalization of the Company (including, without limitation, through an extraordinary dividend or other distribution, a spin-off, split-off or similar transaction), Aggregate Consideration shall also include the fair market value (on the closing date of the Minority Sale and as determined by the Company and Centerview in good faith) of (i) the equity securities of the Company retained by the Company's security holders and/or creditors following the consummation of such transaction and (ii) any cash, securities (including securities of subsidiaries) or other consideration received by the Company's security holders and/or creditors in exchange for or in respect of securities of and/or claims against the Company in connection with such transaction (all such cash, securities and/or claims against other consideration received by such security holders and/or creditors being deemed to have been paid to such security holders and/or creditors in such transaction). If a Minority Sale takes the form of a joint venture, partnership or other entity, Aggregate Consideration shall mean the fair market value (equity plus debt) of the joint venture, partnership or similar entity on the date of formation of such entity. In the event that any part of the consideration in connection with any Minority Sale will be payable (whether in one payment or a series of two or more payments) at any time following the consummation thereof, the term Aggregate Consideration shall include the present value of such future payment or payments, as determined by the Company and Centerview in good faith, except that amounts (if any) held in escrow shall be deemed to have been paid at closing. As used in this Agreement, the terms "payment," "paid" or "payable" shall be deemed to include, as applicable, the issuance or delivery of securities or other property other than cash.

- d. If at any time during the Fee Period, (1) the Company consummates any Financing or (2) the Company receives and accepts written commitments for one or more Financings (the execution by a potential financing source and the Company of a commitment letter or securities purchase agreement or other definitive documentation shall be deemed to be the receipt and acceptance of such written commitment), and at any time (including following the expiration of the Fee Period) any such Financing is consummated, the Company will pay to Centerview the following (each a "Financing Fee"):
- i. 1.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any indebtedness issued that is secured by a first lien, including debtor-in possession financing;
 - ii. 3.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any indebtedness issued that (x) is secured by a second or junior lien, (y) is unsecured and/or (z) is subordinated; and
 - iii. 4.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any equity or equity-linked securities or obligations issued.

In the event that the Company requests that Centerview contact potential investors in connection with a Financing that involves the sale or issuance of securities, upon Centerview's request, the Company and Centerview shall enter into an amendment to this Agreement having such representations and warranties and additional terms as are customary in such transactions.

It is understood and agreed that if the proceeds of any such Financing are to be funded in more than one stage, Centerview shall be paid its applicable compensation hereunder upon the closing date of each stage even if one or more of such stages is consummated after the expiration of the Fee Period, so long as one or more of such stages is consummated during the Fee Period. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Company consummates a financing that falls into two or more of the categories in this subparagraph 2(d), the higher fee shall be payable.

Notwithstanding anything in this subparagraph 2(d) to the contrary, a Financing Fee earned in connection with a debtor-in-possession Financing shall be due upon the Company's receipt and acceptance of written commitments for a debtor-in-possession financing (it being understood and agreed that the execution by a potential financing source and the Company of a commitment letter or securities purchase agreement or other definitive documentation shall be deemed to be the receipt and acceptance of such written commitment).

The Company acknowledges and agrees that Centerview's restructuring expertise as well as its capital markets/financing knowledge and mergers and acquisitions capabilities, some or all of which may be required by the Company during the term of Centerview's engagement hereunder, were important factors in determining the amount of the various fees set forth herein, and that the ultimate benefit to the Company of Centerview's services hereunder could not be measured merely by reference to the number of hours to be expended by Centerview's professionals in the performance of such services. The Company also acknowledges and agrees that the various fees set forth herein have been agreed upon by the parties in anticipation that a substantial commitment of professional time and effort will be required of Centerview and its professionals hereunder over the life of the engagement, and in light of the fact that such commitment may foreclose other opportunities for Centerview and that the actual time and commitment required by Centerview and its professionals to perform its services hereunder may vary substantially from week to week or month to month, creating "peak load" issues for the firm. In addition, given numerous issues which Centerview may be required to address in the performance of its services hereunder, Centerview's commitment to the variable level of time and effort necessary to address all such issues as they arise, and the market prices for Centerview's services for engagements of this nature in an out-of-court context, each party hereto agrees that the fee and expense arrangements hereunder are reasonable under all applicable legal standards.

The Company and Centerview acknowledge and agree that more than one fee may become payable to Centerview under subparagraphs 2(b), 2(c) and/or 2(d) hereof in connection with any single transaction or a series of transactions. It is understood and agreed that if more than one fee becomes so payable to Centerview in connection with a series of independent transactions, each such fee shall be paid to Centerview, subject to applicable credits as provided in this paragraph 2.

3. In addition to the fees payable by the Company to Centerview hereunder, the Company shall, whether or not any Restructuring, Financing and/or Sale shall be proposed or consummated, reimburse Centerview on a periodic basis for its travel and other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel to be retained by Centerview, and of other consultants and advisors retained by Centerview with the Company's consent), incurred in connection with, or arising out of Centerview's activities under or contemplated by this engagement. The Company shall also reimburse Centerview, at such times as Centerview shall request, for any sales, use or similar taxes (including additions to such taxes, if any) arising in connection with any matter referred to in, or contemplated by, this engagement. Such reimbursements shall be made promptly upon submission by Centerview of statements for such expenses. It is understood and agreed that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit in any manner the indemnification, expense reimbursement and other obligations of the Company contained in the Indemnification Agreement attached hereto as Annex A.
4. The Company and Centerview have entered into a separate letter agreement, dated the date hereof and attached hereto as Annex A (the "Indemnification Agreement"), providing for indemnification by the Company of Centerview and certain related persons. Such Indemnification Agreement is an integral part of this Agreement and the terms thereof are incorporated by reference herein. As stated therein, the Indemnification Agreement shall survive any termination or completion of Centerview's engagement hereunder.

5. The Company agrees that neither Centerview nor any of its affiliates, their respective members, directors, officers, employees and controlling persons, and each of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "Centerview Persons" and each individually, a "Centerview Person") shall have any liability (whether direct or indirect, in contract, tort or otherwise) to the Company or any person asserting claims on behalf of or in right of the Company for or in connection with this engagement or any transactions or conduct in connection herewith, except to the extent that any losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred by the Company are finally judicially determined to have resulted directly from the bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence of such Centerview Person.
6. This Agreement and Centerview's engagement hereunder may be terminated by the Company or Centerview at any time upon 15 days' prior written notice thereof to the other party; provided, however, that (A) termination of Centerview's engagement hereunder shall not affect the Company's continuing obligations under the Indemnification Agreement, and its continuing obligations and agreements under paragraphs 5 and 7 hereof, (B) notwithstanding any such termination, Centerview shall be entitled to the full fees in the amounts and at the times provided for in paragraph 2 hereof and (C) termination of Centerview's engagement hereunder shall not affect the Company's obligation to reimburse the expenses accrued prior to such termination to the extent provided in paragraph 3 hereof.
7. Centerview has been retained under this Agreement as an independent contractor with duties owed solely to the Company, and the Company acknowledges that Centerview is not acting as an agent of the Company or in a fiduciary capacity, whether pursuant to contract or otherwise, with respect to the Company or its stockholders, employees, creditors or any other third party. The advice (oral or written) rendered by Centerview pursuant to this Agreement is intended solely for the benefit and use of the Company in considering the matters to which this Agreement relates, and the Company agrees that such advice may not be relied upon by any other person, used for any other purpose or reproduced, disseminated, quoted or referred to at any time, in any manner or for any purpose, nor shall any public references to Centerview be made by the Company, without the prior written consent of Centerview. Centerview is not assuming any duties or obligations other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement.
8. The Company agrees that, Centerview shall have the right to place advertisements in financial and other newspapers and journals and in marketing materials at its own expense describing its services to the Company hereunder.
9. In the event that the Company becomes a debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly apply to the bankruptcy court having jurisdiction over the chapter 11 case or cases (the "Bankruptcy Court") for the approval pursuant to sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code of this Agreement and Centerview's retention by the Company under the terms of this Agreement, and subject to the standard of review provided for in Section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and not subject to any other standard of review under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other standard of review, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain Bankruptcy Court authorization thereof. The Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to supply Centerview with a draft of such application and any proposed order authorizing Centerview's retention that is proposed to be submitted to the Bankruptcy Court sufficiently in advance of the filing of such application or the submission of such order, as the case may be, to enable Centerview to review and comment thereon. Centerview shall have no obligation to provide any services under this Agreement in the event that the Company becomes a debtor under the Bankruptcy Code unless and until Centerview's retention under the terms of this Agreement is approved under Sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code by a final order of the Bankruptcy Court no longer subject to appeal, rehearing, reconsideration or petition for certiorari, and which order is acceptable to Centerview in all respects. Centerview acknowledges that in the event that the Bankruptcy Court approves its retention by the Company pursuant to the application process described in this paragraph 9, payment of Centerview's fees and expenses shall be subject to (i) jurisdiction and approval of the Bankruptcy Court under Sections 327(a) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and any order approving Centerview's retention, (ii) any applicable fee and expense guidelines and/or orders and (iii) any requirements governing interest and final fee applications. Centerview shall have no obligation to keep time records except as it does so in its normal practice and will have no obligation to provide services under this Agreement if it will be required to vary its normal time-keeping practices. In the event that the Company becomes a debtor under the Bankruptcy Code and Centerview's engagement hereunder is approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Company shall pay all fees and expenses of Centerview hereunder as promptly as reasonably practicable in accordance with the terms hereof and any orders of the Bankruptcy Court. In so agreeing to seek Centerview's retention under section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Company acknowledges that it believes that Centerview's experience and expertise, its knowledge of the industry in which the Company operates and the capital markets and its other capabilities will inure to the benefit of the Company, that the value to the Company of Centerview's services hereunder derives in substantial part from that expertise and experience and that, accordingly, the structure and amount of the fees payable to Centerview hereunder are reasonable regardless of the number of hours to be expended by Centerview's professionals in performance of the services to be provided hereunder. Prior to commencing a chapter 11 case, the Company shall pay all undisputed amounts theretofore due and payable to Centerview in cash.

The Company agrees that Centerview's post-petition compensation as set forth herein and payments made pursuant to the expense reimbursements and indemnification provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Annex A hereto) shall be entitled to priority as expenses of administration under sections 503(b)(1)(A) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, and shall be entitled to the benefits of any "carve-outs" for professional fees and expenses in effect pursuant to one or more financing orders entered by the Bankruptcy Court. The Company also agrees to assist Centerview in preparing, filing and serving all required fee statements, interim fee applications, and final fee application. The Company agrees to support Centerview's fee applications during any Bankruptcy Court hearing on such fee applications, so long as the fees and expenses sought by Centerview therein are consistent with this Agreement.

10. This Agreement shall be deemed made in New York. This Agreement and all controversies arising from or relating to performance hereunder shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely in such State, without giving effect to such State's rules concerning conflicts of laws that might provide for any other choice of law. The Company and Centerview agree that any action or proceeding based hereon, or arising out of Centerview's engagement hereunder, shall be brought and maintained in the courts of the State of New York located in the City and County of New York or in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York; provided that, if has commenced a chapter 11 case, all legal proceedings relating to this Agreement shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court. The Company and Centerview each hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York located in the City and County of New York or in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, or, if a chapter 11 case is commenced by the Company, the Bankruptcy Court, for the purpose of any such action or proceeding as set forth above. Each of the Company and Centerview hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection which it may have or hereafter may have to the laying of venue of any such action or proceeding brought in any such court referred to above and any claim that any such action or proceeding has been brought in an inconvenient forum and agree not to plead or claim the same. THE COMPANY (FOR ITSELF, ANYONE CLAIMING THROUGH IT OR IN ITS NAME, AND, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ON BEHALF OF ITS EQUITY HOLDERS) AND CENTERVIEW EACH HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY RIGHT THEY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY CLAIM BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.
11. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which together shall be considered a single document. This Agreement may not be assigned by either party (except by Centerview to an affiliate) without the prior written consent of the other. This Agreement shall be binding upon Centerview and the Company and their respective successors and permitted assigns (including, in the case of the Company, any successor to all or a portion of the assets and/or the businesses of the Company under a Plan). This Agreement is not intended to confer any rights upon any shareholder, creditor, owner or partner of the Company, or any other person or entity not a party hereto, other than the Indemnified Persons referenced in the Indemnification Agreement attached hereto as Annex A and the Centerview Persons referenced in paragraph 5 hereof. This Agreement and the Indemnification Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and may not be amended or otherwise modified or its provisions waived except by a writing executed by Centerview and the Company.

12. This Agreement supersedes in its entirety all prior agreements between Centerview and the Company related to the above referenced matter, including that certain agreement dated June 19, 2022. The parties acknowledge that they intend for this agreement to be effective as of June 19, 2022.
13. Centerview is engaged directly and through its affiliates and related parties in a number of investment banking, financial advisory and merchant banking activities. The Company acknowledges and agrees that in performing its services for the Company hereunder, Centerview shall have no duty to disclose to the Company, or to use for the benefit of the Company, any proprietary or non public information obtained by Centerview or its affiliates or related parties in the course of providing services to any other entity or person, engaging in any transaction (including as principal) or otherwise conducting its business.

We are pleased to accept this engagement and look forward to working with the Company. Please confirm that the foregoing is in accordance with our mutual understanding by signing and returning to Centerview this letter and the Indemnification Agreement attached hereto as Annex A, which shall thereupon constitute binding agreements between Centerview and the Company.

Very truly yours,

Centerview Partners LLC
31 West 52nd Street
New York, NY 10019

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In connection with the engagement (the “Engagement”) of Centerview Partners LLC (“Centerview”) and Celsius Network LLC and certain of its affiliates (collectively, the “Company”) to render financial advisory services to the Company pursuant to a letter agreement dated the date hereof to be entered into between the Company and Centerview (the “Engagement Agreement”), the Company hereby agrees as follows:

1. Except as provided in paragraph 3 hereof, the Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Centerview Persons (as defined below) from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, demands and liabilities, joint or several, or actions or proceedings in respect thereof, brought by or against any person, including, without limitation, by the Company against any Centerview Person and vice versa (collectively, “Losses”), which are related to or arise out of the Engagement Agreement, the Engagement or any matter or transaction contemplated thereby. As used in this letter agreement, the term “Centerview Persons” shall mean Centerview and each of its affiliates, Centerview’s and such affiliates’ respective members, directors, officers, employees and controlling persons, and each of their respective successors and assigns.
2. The Company agrees to reimburse Centerview and each other Centerview Person promptly upon request for all costs and expenses (including fees, disbursements and other charges of legal counsel), as they are incurred in connection with investigating, preparing for, pursuing, defending against or providing evidence in, any pending or threatened action, claim, suit, investigation or other proceeding brought by or against any person, including, without limitation, by the Company against any Centerview Person and vice versa, in any jurisdiction related to or arising out of the Engagement Agreement, the Engagement or any matter or transaction contemplated thereby (whether or not Centerview or any other Centerview Person is a named party or witness, and whether or not any liability to any person results therefrom), including, without limitation, in connection with enforcing the terms hereof.
3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have no obligation to indemnify and hold harmless any Centerview Person under this letter agreement in respect of any Losses to the extent that such Losses are finally judicially determined to have resulted directly from the bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence of such Centerview Person.

4. The Company agrees that it will not, without Centerview's prior written consent, settle, compromise, consent to the entry of any judgment in or otherwise seek to terminate any pending or threatened action, claim, suit, investigation or proceeding in respect of which indemnification or contribution may be sought hereunder (whether or not Centerview or any other Centerview Person is an actual or potential party thereto) unless such settlement, compromise, consent or termination includes an unconditional release of each Centerview Person from all liability arising out of such action, claim, suit, investigation or proceeding and does not impose any monetary or financial obligation on any Centerview Person or contain any admission of culpability or liability on the part of any Centerview Person. No Centerview Person seeking indemnification, reimbursement or contribution under this letter agreement will, without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), settle, compromise, consent to the entry of any judgment in or otherwise seek to terminate any action, claim, suit, investigation or proceeding referred to herein.
5. If the foregoing indemnification provided for herein is determined to be unavailable to a Centerview Person for any reason or is insufficient to hold it harmless in respect of any Losses referred to herein, then, in lieu of indemnifying such Centerview Person hereunder, the Company shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Centerview Person as a result of such Losses (and expenses related thereto) (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits to the Company, on the one hand, and to Centerview, on the other hand, with respect to the Engagement or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) of this paragraph is not available, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) but also the relative fault of each of the Company, together with its officers, directors, employees, stockholders, affiliates and other advisors, on the one hand, and Centerview, on the other hand, and any other relevant and equitable considerations; provided, however, that except with respect to any Losses that are finally judicially determined to have resulted from the bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence of any Centerview Person, in no event shall the aggregate contribution of the Centerview Persons to the amounts so paid or payable exceed the aggregate amount of all fees actually received by Centerview from the Company in connection with the Engagement (excluding any amounts received by Centerview as reimbursement of expenses pursuant to the Engagement Agreement). For purposes of this letter agreement, the relative benefit to the Company and Centerview of the Engagement shall be deemed to be in the same proportion as (a) the total value paid or contemplated to be paid or received or contemplated to be received by the Company in the transaction or transactions that are the subject of the Engagement, whether or not such transaction is proposed or completed, bears to (b) the fees paid or to be paid to Centerview under the Engagement Agreement.
6. This letter agreement shall be deemed made in New York. This letter agreement and all controversies arising from or relating to performance hereunder shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely in such State, without giving effect to such State's rules concerning conflicts of laws that might provide for any other choice of law. Each of the Company and Centerview agrees that any action or proceeding based on, arising out of or resulting from any matter referred to in this letter agreement, shall be brought and maintained exclusively in the courts of the State of New York located in the City and County of New York or in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York; provided that, if the Company has commenced a chapter 11 case, all legal proceedings relating to this letter agreement shall be brought in the bankruptcy court overseeing such proceedings. The Company and Centerview each hereby irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York located in the City and County of New York or in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, or, if a chapter 11 case is commenced by the Company, the relevant bankruptcy court, for the purpose of any such action or proceeding as set forth above, and irrevocably agrees to be bound by any judgment rendered thereby in connection with such action or proceeding. Each of the Company and Centerview hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection which it may have or hereafter may have to the laying of venue of any such action or proceeding brought in any such court referred to above and any claim that any such action or proceeding has been brought in an inconvenient forum, and agree not to plead or claim the same. ANY RIGHTS OF TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIM, COUNTERCLAIM OR ACTION ARISING OUT OF THIS LETTER AGREEMENT ARE HEREBY WAIVED.

7. The indemnity, contribution, reimbursement and other obligations of the Company hereunder shall be in addition to any liability that the Company may have, at common law or otherwise, and shall be binding on its successors and permitted assigns. The obligations of the Company hereunder cannot be assigned without the prior written consent of Centerview.
8. Prior to or at the time a public announcement is made concerning the Company entering into any agreement or arrangement with respect to, or effecting, any merger, statutory exchange or other business combination or proposed sale or exchange, dividend or other distribution or liquidation of all or a significant portion of its assets in one or a series of transactions or any significant recapitalization or reclassification of its outstanding securities that does not directly or indirectly provide for the assumption of the obligations of the Company set forth herein, the Company will notify Centerview in writing thereof and, if requested by Centerview, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to arrange in connection therewith alternative means of providing for the obligations of the Company set forth herein.
9. The terms of this letter agreement shall apply to all services provided by Centerview to the Company in connection with the matters contemplated by the Engagement, including those provided prior to the date of this letter agreement. This letter agreement supersedes the prior letter agreement dated June 17, 2022. The parties acknowledge that they intend for this letter agreement to be effective as of June 17, 2022. The provisions of this letter agreement shall apply to any subsequent amendment to or modification of the Engagement Agreement, and shall survive the termination of the Engagement Agreement or completion of any transaction contemplated by the Engagement Agreement. The provisions of paragraph 11 of the Engagement Agreement are incorporated by reference into this letter agreement.

Very truly yours

SERVICES TO BE RENDERED

7. Subject to further order of the Court, and as set forth more fully in the Engagement Letter attached to the Order as Exhibit 1, in consideration for the compensation contemplated therein, Centerview has and will perform the following services (the "Services"), as requested, for the Debtors:⁴

- a. General Financial Advisory and Investment Banking Services:
 - i. familiarize itself with the business, operations, properties, financial condition, and prospects of the Debtors;
 - ii. review the Debtors' financial condition and outlook;
 - iii. advise and assist the Debtors in the development of financial data and presentations, including financial projections, to the Debtors' Board of Directors, various equity holders, creditors, and other parties;

⁴ This summary is solely for the convenience of the Court and parties-in-interest. The summary of the Engagement Letter in this Declaration is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the Engagement Letter. To the extent there is any discrepancy between the summary contained herein and the terms set forth in the Engagement Letter, the terms of the Engagement Letter shall control. Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined in this Declaration shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Engagement Letter.

- iv. evaluate the Debtors' debt capacity and capital structure alternatives;
- v. participate in negotiations among the Debtors and related equity holders, creditors, suppliers, lessors, and other interested parties with respect to any of the transactions contemplated by the Engagement Letter;
- vi. advise and assist the Debtors in evaluating a range of strategic alternatives and advise and assist in formulating alternative plans for the Debtors in connection with any transaction contemplated by the Engagement Letter; and
- vii. perform such other financial advisory services as may be specifically agreed upon in writing by the Debtors and Centerview.

b. Restructuring Services:

- i. analyze various Restructuring scenarios and the potential impact of these scenarios on the value of the Debtors and the recoveries of those stakeholders impacted by the Restructuring;
- ii. advise and assist the Debtors in structuring, negotiating, implementing and otherwise responding to the financial aspects of a Restructuring;
- iii. provide financial and valuation advice and assistance to the Debtors in developing and seeking approval of a plan of reorganization under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to effectuate a Restructuring (as the same may be modified from time to time, a "Plan");
- iv. provide financial advice and assistance to the Debtors in structuring any new securities or debt instruments to be issued pursuant to the Restructuring;
- v. advise and assist the Debtors in connection with and/or participate in negotiations with entities or groups affected by the Restructuring; and
- vi. if requested by the Debtors, participate in hearings before the Court with respect to the matters upon which Centerview has provided advice, including, as relevant, coordinating with Debtors' counsel with respect to expert reports or testimony in connection therewith.

c. Financing Services:

- i. provide financial advice and assistance to the Debtors in structuring and effecting a Financing, identifying potential Investors and, at the Debtors' request, contacting such Investors; and

- ii. assist in the arranging of a Financing, the due diligence process, and negotiating the terms of any proposed Financing.
- d. Sale Services:
 - i. provide financial advice and assistance to the Debtors in connection with a Sale, identifying potential acquirors and, at the Debtors' request, contacting such potential acquirors;
 - ii. assist the Debtors in connection with any due diligence process in connection with any potential Sale; and
 - iii. assist the Debtors in connection with and/or participate in negotiations with potential acquirors.

8. I believe these professional services are necessary to the Debtors' restructuring efforts and in the ongoing operation and management of the Debtors' business while subject to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, if the Debtors request that Centerview perform services not contemplated by the Engagement Letter, Centerview and the Debtors will agree, in writing, on the terms for such services and seek the Court's approval. I believe that the employment of Centerview is important to enabling the Debtors to execute their duties as debtors in possession and to effectuate their reorganization efforts.

PROFESSIONAL COMPENSATION

9. Centerview's decision to advise and assist the Debtors in connection with these chapter 11 cases is subject to its ability to be retained in accordance with its customary terms and conditions of employment, compensated for its services, and reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses it incurs in accordance with its customary billing practices, as set forth in the Engagement Letter.

10. As set forth more fully in the Engagement Letter, and subject thereto, Centerview will be compensated as follows (the "Fee and Expense Structure"):

- i. Monthly Advisory Fee. A monthly financial advisory fee of $250,000 (the "Monthly Advisory Fee"), the first of which shall be due and paid by the Debtors upon execution of the Engagement Letter and thereafter on each monthly anniversary thereof during the term of Centerview's engagement. After receipt of aggregate Monthly Advisory Fees of $3,000,000, 50% of the amount of any subsequent Monthly Advisory Fees paid to Centerview will be credited (but only once) against any Transaction Fee payable to Centerview pursuant to subparagraph 2(b) of the Engagement Letter.

- ii. Transaction Fee. If at any time during the term of Centerview's engagement or within the 12 full months following the termination of this engagement (including the term of this engagement, the "Fee Period"), (1) the Debtors consummate any Restructuring or Sale or (2) the Debtors enter into an agreement in principle, definitive agreement or Plan to effect a Restructuring or Sale, and at any time (including following the expiration of the Fee Period), such Restructuring or Sale is consummated, Centerview shall be entitled to receive a transaction fee (a "Transaction Fee"), contingent upon the consummation of a Restructuring or Sale and payable at the closing thereof equal to $12,000,000.
- iii. Minority Sale Transaction Fee. If at any time during the Fee Period, whether in connection with the consummation of a Restructuring or otherwise, (1) the Debtors consummate any sale transaction not covered by the definition of Sale (a "Minority Sale"), or (2) the Debtors enter into an agreement in principle or definitive agreement to effect a Minority Sale, and at any time during the Fee Period such Minority Sale is consummated, the Debtors shall pay Centerview a fee (a "Minority Sale Transaction Fee") equal to 2.50% of the Aggregate Consideration. Such Minority Sale Transaction Fee shall be contingent upon the consummation of a Minority Sale and payable at the closing thereof. Any fee paid under section 2(c) of the Engagement Letter shall be 50% credited (but only once) against any fees payable under section 2(b) of the Engagement Letter.
- iv. Financing Fee. If at any time during the Fee Period, (1) the Debtors consummate any Financing or (2) the Debtors receive and accept written commitments for one or more Financings (the execution by a potential financing source and the Debtors of a commitment letter or securities purchase agreement or other definitive documentation shall be deemed to be the receipt and acceptance of such written commitment), and at any time (including following the expiration of the Fee Period) any such Financing is consummated, the Debtors will pay to Centerview the following (each a "Financing Fee"):
 - 1. 1.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any indebtedness issued that is secured by a first lien, including debtor-in-possession financing;
 - 2. 3.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any indebtedness issued that (x) is secured by a second or junior lien, (y) is unsecured and/or (z) is subordinated; and

3. 4.00% of the aggregate amount of financing commitments of any equity or equity-linked securities or obligations issued.

11. In addition to any fees payable to Centerview, the Debtors will reimburse Centerview for all of its actual, reasonable, and documented out-of-pocket expenses as they are incurred in entering into and performing services under the Engagement Letter, including the costs of Centerview's legal counsel (without the need for such legal counsel to be retained as a professional in these Chapter 11 Cases and without regard to whether such legal counsel's services satisfy section 330(a)(3)(c) of the Bankruptcy Code). On June 21, 2022, the Debtors paid, and will maintain, a $10,000 expense advance for Centerview (the "Retainer"). Centerview will return the unused portion of the Retainer to the Debtors following termination of the Engagement Letter. Centerview agrees to provide the Debtors with reasonable support for its expenses at the Debtors' request or at the Court's discretion.

12. Centerview intends to apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, subject to the Court's approval and in compliance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Court Guidelines, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court, including any order approving the Application and consistent with the proposed compensation set forth in the Engagement Letter.

13. Centerview agreed upon the Fee and Expense Structure in anticipation that a substantial commitment of professional time and effort would be required of Centerview and in light of the fact that (a) such commitment could foreclose other opportunities for Centerview and (b) the actual time and commitment required of Centerview and its professionals to perform its services under the Engagement Letter may vary substantially from week to week and month to month, creating "peak load" issues for Centerview.

APPLICATION FOR COMPENSATION AND TIME KEEPING

14. Centerview still intends to file interim and final fee applications for the allowance of compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred. Such applications will include time records setting forth, in a summary format, a description of the services that each professional renders and the amount of time that such individual spent on each date in rendering services on behalf of the Debtors.

15. Because it is not the general practice of investment banking firms, including Centerview, to keep contemporaneous detailed time records similar to those customarily kept by attorneys or provide or conform to a schedule of hourly rates for its professionals, Centerview does not ordinarily maintain contemporaneous time records in one-tenth (0.1) of an hour increments, or provide or conform to a schedule of hourly rates for its professionals. Moreover, Centerview does not ordinarily keep time records on a “project category” basis and, pursuant to the Engagement Letter, Centerview’s compensation is based in part on a fixed Monthly Advisory Fee. Notwithstanding that Centerview does not charge for its services on an hourly basis, Centerview requests that it be permitted to maintain time records in half hour (0.5) increments, setting forth, in a summary format, a description of the services rendered and the professionals rendering such services on behalf of the Debtors. Centerview will also maintain records in support of any costs and expenses incurred in connection with its services.

INDEMNIFICATION

16. As part of the overall compensation payable to Centerview under the terms of the Engagement Letter, the Debtors have agreed to certain indemnification, contribution, and reimbursement obligations (the “Indemnification Provisions”), set forth in Annex A of the Engagement Letter (the “Indemnification Agreement”). I believe the Indemnification Provisions reflected in the Indemnification Agreement are customary and reasonable terms of consideration for investment banking firms such as Centerview for engagements both out of court and, as modified by the order approving Centerview's retention, in chapter 11 cases. The Indemnification Agreement's Indemnification Provisions were fully negotiated by the Debtors and Centerview at arm's-length and in good faith.

NO DUPLICATION OF SERVICES

17. The Debtors have applied, or expect to apply, to the Court to retain additional professionals, including, among others: (a) Kirkland & Ellis LLP; (b) Alvarez and Marsal, LLC; (c) Ernst & Young LLP; and (d) Stretto, Inc. Centerview is mindful of the need to avoid duplication of services and appropriate procedures will be implemented to ensure that there is minimal duplication of effort as a result of Centerview's retention as investment banker. Centerview will use its reasonable efforts to work cooperatively with the Debtors' other professionals to integrate any respective work performed by those professionals on behalf of the Debtors.

CENTERVIEW'S DISINTERESTEDNESS

18. Prior to the Petition Date and pursuant to the Engagement Letter, the Debtors paid Centerview $500,000 in Monthly Advisory Fees for the months of June and July, $246.59 as reimbursement for Centerview's expenses billed through the Petition Date, and the Retainer. Centerview has received no other compensation from the Debtors pursuant to the Engagement Letter. As of the Petition Date, Centerview did not hold a prepetition claim against the Debtors for fees or expenses related to services rendered in connection with the engagement.

19. In connection with its proposed retention by the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, Centerview undertook to determine whether it had any conflicts or other material relationships that might cause it not to be disinterested or to hold or represent an interest adverse to the Debtors. In connection with this inquiry, Centerview obtained from the Debtors and their professionals the names of individuals and entities that may be parties-in-interest in these chapter 11 cases (the “Potential Parties-in-Interest”). A categorized summary of the Potential Parties-in-Interest is provided on Schedule 1 attached hereto

20. To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, Centerview has not represented any Potential Parties-in-Interest in connection with matters relating to the Debtors, their estates, assets, or businesses and will not represent other entities which are creditors of, or have other relationships to, the Debtors in matters relating to these cases.

21. As part of this inquiry, Centerview entered the names of the Potential Parties-in-Interest into its computer database of existing and prior client and similar relationships. The list generated from Centerview's client database is over-inclusive. Through this process, Centerview determined that it currently has and/or formerly had a relationship with certain of the Potential Parties-in-Interest (and/or their affiliates or entities that Centerview believes to be affiliates, as the case may be) on matters wholly unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, and based on such internal review process, Schedule 2 lists Potential Parties-in-Interest (and/or their apparent affiliates or entities that Centerview believes to be affiliates, as the case may be) with which Centerview currently has or formerly had a client or similar relationship on matters wholly unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases, including but not limited to engagements to provide financial advisory services (including situations where the Potential Party-in-Interest is or was only a member of a group of lenders, creditors or equity owners that Centerview represented) and entities with whom Centerview has engaged in or is currently engaged in an ordinary course business development dialogue. I note that Centerview has in the past represented WestCap Management LLC, a vendor of the Debtors and a Potential Party-in-Interest (also an affiliate of WestCap Group, a significant equity holder of the Debtors and a Potential Party-in-Interest), in connection with a matter unrelated to these chapter 11 cases. Centerview has not signed an engagement letter with respect to or received any fees in connection with such matter, which I am informed is no longer ongoing.

22. As part of Centerview's diverse business, Centerview appears or may appear as a financial advisor or an investment banker in numerous cases, proceedings, or transactions involving attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, and financial consultants, some of whom may represent claimants and Potential Parties-in-Interest or be claimants and Potential Parties-in-Interest in these cases. Further, Centerview (including its professionals through their prior employment) has in the past, and may in the future, be represented by attorneys and law firms, some of whom may be involved in these cases. In addition, Centerview (including its professionals through their prior employment) has in the past and will likely in the future be working with, against or for other professionals involved in these cases in matters unrelated to these cases. In addition, Centerview has been in the past, and likely will be in the future, engaged in matters unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases in which it works with or against or has mutual clients with other professionals involved in these chapter 11 cases. In particular, Centerview may also be engaged to represent, or may have been engaged to represent in the past, committees or groups of lenders, creditors, or equity owners in matters unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases, some of which are included on the Potential Parties-in-Interest list. Furthermore, as set forth on Schedule 3, Centerview has vendor relationships with certain of the entities listed as Potential Parties-in-Interest, including law firms, unrelated to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases. Based on our current knowledge of the entities listed as Potential

Parties-in-Interest in these chapter 11 cases and the professionals involved, none of these business relations constitute interests materially adverse to the Debtors in matters upon which Centerview is to be engaged in these cases.

23. Other than as referenced herein or set forth on Schedule 2, I am unaware of any existing or prior client or similar relationships that Centerview has had with the Potential Parties-in-Interest. Centerview has not been engaged to assist any entity or person other than the Debtors on matters relating to, or in connection with, these cases. If the Court approves the proposed employment of Centerview by the Debtors, Centerview will not accept any engagement or perform any services in relation to these cases for any entity or person other than the Debtors. Centerview is a global investment banking and advisory firm. Given the size of Centerview and the breadth of Centerview's client base, it is possible that Centerview may now or in the future be engaged by one or more of the Potential Parties-in-Interest in matters unrelated to the Debtors or these cases without my knowledge. In addition, the Debtors may have customers, creditors, competitors, and other parties with whom they maintain business relationships that are not listed as Potential Parties-in-Interest and with whom Centerview may now or in the future have engagements or maintain material commercial or other professional relationships. To the extent that Centerview discovers any, or enters into any new material commercial or other professional relationship with Potential Parties-in-Interest, it will use reasonable efforts to supplement this disclosure to the Court.

24. Further, Centerview has legal and separate affiliates and related parties (the "Corporate Group Entities") that engage in a variety of investment activities. The Corporate Group Entities operate Centerview Capital Consumer, a consumer-focused private equity and investment business and Centerview Capital Technology, a technology focused private and growth equity business. The Corporate Group Entities do not reside in the same corporate structure as Centerview. The Centerview employees providing services in connection with these chapter 11 cases have no control over investment or business decisions made for the Corporate Group Entities, and because of physical and electronic information barriers and other compliance policies and procedures, have no access to any confidential information of the Corporate Group Entities. Likewise, the investment professionals responsible for the Corporate Group Entities' day-to-day portfolio management have no access to any confidential information relating to Centerview's work for the Debtors. Nevertheless, none of the Corporate Group Entities hold an ownership interest in, or debt of, any of the Debtors or the other Potential Parties-in-Interest.⁵ Based upon my understanding from Centerview's internal compliance group, Centerview's internal compliance group, which sits above Centerview's investment banking deal teams and the investment professionals within Corporate Group Entities, has real-time access to the identities of the companies in which the Corporate Group Entities invest. As part of Centerview's search for relationships between any of the Corporate Group Entities and the companies in which they are invested, on the one hand, and the Potential Parties-in-Interest, on the other hand, Centerview's internal compliance group compared the Corporate Group Entities and the companies in which they are invested to the list of Potential Parties-in-Interest. Centerview's internal compliance group, consistent with its standard practice, did not inform any of the Corporate Group Entities that it was conducting this comparison. Furthermore, were any of the Corporate Group Entities to make a new investment, Centerview's internal compliance group would be made aware before the investment is made and would be in a position to review that investment against the Potential Parties-in-Interest and update Centerview's prior disclosures or take other action as necessary.

Based on the foregoing, I believe that the Corporate Group Entities' investment activities do not present a conflict of interest with respect to Centerview's retention by the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases. If any of the Corporate Group Entities subsequently invest in any of the Potential Parties-in-Interest, or if Centerview becomes aware that any entity in which any of the Corporate Group Entities is invested subsequently becomes a Potential Party-in-Interest, Centerview will use reasonable efforts to file a supplemental declaration, as required by Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a). Moreover, I note that certain of the Potential Parties-in-Interest may now or in the future invest in funds that are managed by the Corporate Group Entities or co-invest with the Corporate Group Entities, but I do not believe that these potential relationships create a conflict of interest for Centerview regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases. I also note that David Dorman, a principal of Centerview Capital Technology, is a member of the Board of Directors of Dell Technologies, Inc., an affiliate of which is a vendor of the Debtors and a Potential Party-in-Interest. Mr. Dorman is not an employee of Centerview, does not share in any of the profits of Centerview (including any fees that may be paid by the Debtors to Centerview), and has no role in the governance of Centerview in any respect. Further, Mr. Dorman does not have access to confidential information relating to Centerview's work for the Debtors, and is not physically located in any Centerview office. Accordingly, I believe that the foregoing board membership does not present a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

25. To the best of my knowledge and belief after reasonable inquiry, neither I, Centerview, nor any Centerview employees participating in Centerview's engagement with the Debtors: (a) is related to or has any connection with the U.S. Trustee for the Southern District of New York or anyone employed in the Office of the U.S. Trustee for the Southern District of New York or (b) is related to or has any connection with any United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of New York, including the judge assigned to these cases.

26. To the best of my knowledge and belief, insofar as I have been able to ascertain after reasonable inquiry, Centerview has no agreement with any other entity to share with such entity any compensation received by Centerview in connection with these chapter 11 cases. No promises have been received by Centerview as to compensation for Centerview in connection with these chapter 11 cases other than in accordance with the Engagement Letter.

27. Certain employees of Centerview may have mortgages, deposits, consumer loans, investment accounts, brokerage accounts, or other banking, brokerage or customer relationships with the Debtors or institutions that are creditors, equity holders or other Potential Parties-in-Interest in these chapter 11 cases. I do not believe that these relationships create a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or their chapter 11 cases.

28. Certain employees of Centerview were formerly employed by other investment banking, financial services or other professional services firms that are among, or represent other parties that are among, the creditors, equity holders, or other Potential Parties-in-Interest in these cases in connection with matters unrelated to the Debtors and the cases. I do not believe that these matters create a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or the cases.

29. No employees of Centerview own financial debt or equity securities of the Debtors. However, certain employees of Centerview and certain of such persons' relatives may directly or indirectly hold, in the ordinary course, debt or equity securities of certain of the Potential Parties-in-Interest. However, based upon the information that has been provided to me, I believe that any such holdings are insignificant and, to my knowledge, none of these investors controls or has any influence on such Potential Parties-in-Interest. Further, I do not believe these investments, considered separately or collectively, are material or create a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

30. In addition, a limited number of employees of Centerview may have accounts with the Debtors and/or may directly or indirectly own Celsius digital currency tokens. However, based upon the information that has been provided to me, I believe that any such holdings are insignificant. These employees have not, and will not, perform work in connection with Centerview's representation of the Debtors and will not have access to confidential information related to the representation. Accordingly, I do not believe that these holdings create a conflict of interest for Centerview regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

31. I am informed that Sean Carmody, an employee of Centerview who is working on this engagement, has a passive, limited partnership interest in a WestCap fund that has between fifteen (15) and twenty (20) investments, including an investment in Celsius preferred equity. Mr. Carmody believes, based on his own estimation of the fund's investments, that his limited partnership interest in the WestCap fund allocable to the fund's Celsius investment would be under $75,000. As a limited partner in the WestCap fund, Mr. Carmody does not have a direct equity investment in Celsius and has no involvement in the WestCap fund's investment or other decisions, including decisions that may be made in connection with these chapter 11 cases. As a consequence, I believe that Mr. Carmody's passive investment does not create a conflict of interest for Centerview in relation to the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

32. Further, I note that Alan Carr, a member of the Board of Directors of Celsius Networks, LLC is also a member of the board of directors of Enjoy Technology, Inc., a private company that Centerview is engaged to represent in connection with matters unrelated to the Debtors and these chapter 11 cases. However, I do not believe that Mr. Carr's membership on the boards of these two Centerview clients creates a conflict of interest for Centerview regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

33. Finally, I note that John Roos, a senior advisor to Centerview, is a member of the board of directors of Salesforce, Inc., the parent company of Slack Technologies, Inc. and Tableau Software, LLC, vendors of the Debtors and Potential Parties-in-Interest. As a senior advisor, Mr. Roos is a part-time independent contractor. Mr. Roos is not an employee of Centerview. He does not share in any of the profits of Centerview (including any fees that may be paid by the Debtors to Centerview) and has no role in the governance of Centerview in any respect. Further, Mr. Roos does not have access to confidential information relating to Centerview's work for the Debtors, and is not physically located in any Centerview office. Accordingly, I believe that the foregoing board membership does not present a conflict of interest regarding the Debtors or these chapter 11 cases.

34. In light of the number of the Debtors' creditors, Potential Parties-in-Interest, and potential additional parties-in-interest, neither I nor Centerview am able conclusively to identify all potential relationships at this time, and we reserve the right to supplement this disclosure as additional material relationships come to our attention. In particular, among other things, Centerview may have relationships with persons who are beneficial owners of Potential Parties-in-Interest and persons whose beneficial owners include Potential Parties-in-Interest or persons who otherwise have relationships with Potential Parties-in-Interest. Moreover, Centerview employees may have relationships with Potential Parties-in-Interest, persons that may become parties-in-interest in this case, or persons that have business relationships with the Debtors or are competitors of the Debtors.

35. Based on the foregoing, to the best of my knowledge and belief, insofar as I have been able to ascertain after reasonable inquiry, Centerview and the employees of Centerview that will work on this engagement do not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Debtors or their estates, and Centerview is a “disinterested person” as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that Centerview and the employees of Centerview that will work on this engagement:

- a. are not creditors, equity security holders, or insiders of the Debtors;
- b. were not, within two years before the Petition Date, a director, officer, or employee of the Debtors; and
- c. do not have an interest materially adverse to the Debtors, their respective estates, or any class of creditors or equity security holders by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in the Debtors, or for any other reason.

36. To the extent that any new material facts or relationships bearing on the matters described herein during the period of Centerview’s retention are discovered or arise, Centerview will use reasonable efforts to file a supplemental declaration, as required by Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a).

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
